

Knowledge and understanding	Interpreting texts Constructing texts	Reflecting
Identifies language elements and makes connections to the subject matter and text type	Identifies how the storybook animal character and animal in an information book are described	Compares the similarities and differences of language choices in storybooks and information books
↑ ◀ Demonstrates thorough connections between prior knowledge and the subject matter of each text by identifying words, groups of words, visuals and images that describe how the character and animal is represented in different ways for different audiences in the concept maps and discussion.	↑ ◀ Concept maps clearly demonstrate the interpretation and identification of appropriate language elements that describe the storybook animal character and the animal.	↑ ◀ Explores and elaborates on how language choices create different interpretations, and identifies similarities and differences between the text types.	A
◀ Demonstrates connections between prior knowledge and the subject matter of each text by identifying words, groups of words, visuals and images that describe the character and animal in the concept maps and discussion.	◀ Concept maps demonstrate the identification of language elements that describe the storybook animal character and the animal.	◀ Identifies language choices that create different interpretations and identifies obvious similarities and differences between the text types.	B
			C
◀ Repeats words from the texts.	◀ Concept maps contain copied words from the texts.	◀ Talks about the animal character and the animal	D
			E

Feedback

.....